

A Boy In Barcelona

Meet Will Kingsfield, a thirty-something gay guy, who in desperate need for a change in his life, decides to move from a small village in Southern England to the bustling centre of Barcelona in Spain. In his attempt to start anew, Will decides to quit Facebook, Twitter and all other forms of Social Media, jack in all the gay dating apps and websites and instead takes up the dying art of letter writing. Spurred on by letters from his Mum, Madam Chairwoman for the Flower Arranging Club, Miss. Elaine, the ever so flamboyant director of the Village Pantomime and his best friend Suz, a man-eating Ozzie, Will writes about his new life, complete with all of the ups and downs of moving to a new country, starting a new job and meeting Mr. Right! Filled with a year full of adventures, stories and laugh out loud moments, A Boy In Barcelona is the perfect read for those of us that love life and love laughter! A Boy In Barcelona is a gay adaptation of his popular novel Letters to Rachel.
