

Once a Soldier: Book Two Vietnam

We travel an uncertain path in the journey known as life. The Wind blows us at random from East to West, while we try to make sense of it and bend the Wind to our will. But destiny calls and overrules our feeble efforts, for a Power greater than Us directs the Wind and will not let go. Not one will be left behind. Not one will be lost. Unless that one denies the calling. ...

The question remains: Will God bring Carl home, or shall his own stubborn will doom him to an early grave or to worse? ... Carl was mostly an obedient child, mostly a hard worker, but will he heed Gods call to be more? to serve? to live as he is meant to live? Or will he fall prey to a world that is bitter and destructive? Cold and unforgiving? ... Our story continues ...
