

This is volume N 2: of B.M.Bower in existence, 4 novels including many adventures of the Flying U Ranch-, nicely arranged in strict chronological order to appreciate the evolution of the writer. Known mostly for her westerns, B.M.Bower was one of the most prolific writers of the XXth century, with over 60 novels, most critically acclaimed as creator of new paradigmas in the world of westerns. The works included in this gigantic collection are the following: Rowdy of the Cross L: 1907 Her Prairie Knight: 1909 The Happy Family: 1910 (9 Short Stories) Good Indian: 1912 Bertha Muzzy Sinclair or Sinclair-Cowan, nee Muzzy (November 15, 1871 – July 23, 1940), best known by her pseudonym B. M. Bower, was an American author who wrote novels, fictional short stories, and screenplays about the American Old West. Her works, featuring cowboys and cows of the Flying U Ranch in Montana, reflected an interest in ranch life, the use of working cowboys as main characters (even in romantic plots), the occasional appearance of eastern types for the sake of contrast, a sense of western geography as simultaneously harsh and grand, and a good deal of factual attention to such matters as cattle branding and bronc busting. She was married three times: to Clayton Bower in 1890, to Bertrand William Sinclair (also a Western author) in 1905, and to Robert Elsworth Cowan in 1921. However, she chose to publish under the name Bower
