

All Dali Salazaar ever wanted was to write his own destiny. To pursue his only purpose, he escapes his foster home, unaware that fate has planned to unfold the darkest tragedies of his past. The brutal events that follow rip away his only chance at love, shaping him into a silent predator, hunting the evils of society. After four years spent in grief and secrecy, Dali has resigned himself to forgoing happiness. To right another wrong, he is on his way to Pakistan, unaware that he has been a target of a vengeful pursuit which turns the tables once again, revolving them around love and revenge - a daring combination that destiny has forced him to confront.
